The United Nations developed a set of human rights that apply to everyone.

A community can be a group of people with something in common such as living in the same area or having the same religion.

Community groups often work across large areas of the country and provide lots of different services for people.

People can set up their own community groups to help in a certain area, for example the environment or activities for certain groups.

Communities are made up of lots of different people and working together makes a strong community.

Local councillors represent local people and a big part of their role is to make things better for people who live in their area.

Reusing things is better for the environment because it reduces waste and means less new things need to be made.
